

Order of Worship Pentecost

Note: Highlights indicate points at which music may be offered.

This liturgy is shaped according to the ancient and ecumenical liturgical ordo and the Scripture readings assigned in the Revised Common Lectionary:

Acts 2: 1-21

Psalm 104: 24-34, 35b

Second Reading:

Year A 1 Corinthians 12: 3b-13

Year B Romans 8: 22-27

Year C Romans 8: 14-17

Gospel:

Year A John 20: 19-23

Year B John 15: 26-27; 16: 4b-15

Year C John 14: 9-17 [25-27]

Note: On Pentecost the reading from Acts is often substituted for the lesson from the Hebrew Bible. If the reading from the Hebrew Bible is chosen, then Acts: 1-21 (the Pentecost narrative) becomes the Second (Epistle) Reading. The Gospel readings are different on each of the three years in the lectionary cycle, yet they all are promises of the coming of the Holy Spirit.

The basic structure of this service is the ordo (Gathering, Penitence, Word, Eucharist, Sending) shared by most liturgical traditions. Where there are denominationally-specific expressions, they are referenced:

Roman Catholic - Missal, Propers of the Mass for Pentecost

Presbyterian - Book of Common Worship, pp. 344-351

Lutheran - Evangelical Lutheran Worship, Any of 10 settings of Holy Communion, pp. 94 ff. Propers for Resurrection of Our Lord, p. 36

Episcopal - Book of Common Prayer, Order for Eucharist, Rites I (pp. 319 ff) and II (pp. 355 ff)

Methodist - United Methodist Book of Worship, Service of Word and Table I, pp. 33 ff and The Great Thanksgiving for Pentecost, p. 68-69

 the . . . chapter, beginning at the . . . verse.
 Listen for the Word of God.

Reading, followed by:

Leader: The Gospel of the Lord!

All: Praise to you, Lord Christ!

Sermon/Homily

A period of silence may take place, followed by a hymn or anthem.

In some churches Baptism, Confirmation, Reception of Members, and related acts are included on Pentecost and may occur here. If none of these are scheduled, Remembrance of Baptism with sprinkling (asperges) may be included here.

Presbyterian: Book of Common Order, Reaffirmation of Baptism for a Congregation, pp. 435-437; also: "Thanksgiving for Baptism," pp. 74-80, and p. 348.

Lutheran: Evangelical Lutheran Worship, "Affirmation of Baptism," pp. 234-237.

Methodist: "Congregational Reaffirmation of the Baptismal Covenant," pp.111-114.

A doxology may be sung.

Otherwise the assembly may speak or sing one of the creeds in unison as is customary in the assembly.

A hymn or anthem is appropriate here.

Intercessions

In some traditions intercessions are included in the prayers of the Eucharist. Otherwise intercessions occur here in the formats that are customary in the church's practice.

Presbyterian: Book of Common Worship, Day of Pentecost p. 349.

Episcopal: Book of Common Prayer, pp. 383 ff.

Methodist: United Methodist Book of Worship, pp. 407-408

Roman Catholic: Missal, Mass for Easter Sunday: Alleluia

Presbyterian: Book of Common Worship, Invitation to the Lord's Table, p. 324

Presentation:

Roman Catholic: Missal, Mass for Pentecost: Prayer over the Offerings

The Great Thanksgiving:

Some liturgical traditions have authorized settings for the Eucharist. Others have optional and/or alternate settings for special seasons and festivals, especially for Pentecost.

Presbyterian: Book of Common Order, pp.349 ff.

Roman Catholic: Missal, Preface of Pentecost followed by Eucharistic Prayer I.

Lutheran: Evangelical Lutheran Worship: Eucharistic Prayer IV in Settings

One and Two are for the seasons of Ash Wednesday through Day of Pentecost.

Methodist: United Methodist Book of Worship, pp. 68 ff. or pp. 46-50 with Preface for Day of Pentecost

Episcopal: Book of Common Prayer, Eucharistic Prayers I or II (Rite I), pp. 333 ff.;

(Rite II) Eucharistic Prayers A, B, C, D pp. 361 -374, with Preface for

Pentecost, p. 347 (Rite I), p. 380 (Rite II)

Offering and Offertory

An anthem may be sung during the receiving of the gifts and a festive doxology or canticle during the presentation. This practice is based on the liturgical understanding that the offertory is a table-setting action to prepare for the Eucharist.

Presentation

Communion

If the Eucharist is not celebrated, a prayer of thanksgiving may be included here.

Presbyterian: Book of Common Order, p. 351

Methodist: The United Methodist Book of Worship, p. 408
